I549143 2005d OCLC Number: (OCoLC)61171691 Subject: Humanitarian assistance, American -- Finance. Excerpt: . . . 11 throughout Iraq. So we ask, sir, that that - I would extend to you this is my number one priority for the supplemental. If I could, let me just comment on a couple of things which the panel commented. On democracy, human rights, and labor versus oceans and the environment, I will just note that many of those things are also in the democracy area rule of law conducted by USAID. So it is difficult to do an apples-to-apples comparison. I have a background in corporate finance. We make our living doing comparables of one corporation to another. And other initiatives both on the part of the Administration and on the part of Congress make it difficult to reduce that to an apples-to-apples comparison. In making that comparison, we must look at the laudable efforts in that arena of USAID. Mr. Payne, I would welcome the opportunity to come up here with our Director General, Ambassador Bob Pearson, first to define exactly what you would like to know rather than just to take up our brief comments that we have had here at this meeting; to come up here in the next 2 weeks or 3 weeks, depending on your schedule,...
