New Line Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 90 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 4.9in. x 0.3in. Some day my kids will write a tell-all, but for now, this book is my tell-all. For my childrens tell-all, one chapter will detail how their mothers idea of cooking dinner is well, lacking; that their mothers idea of cooking is to: A. Burns it (This really is not done on purpose). B. To order pizza. C. Make pancakes. Schools should not serve pizza. Why Because pizza is an easy, quick and tasty choice for undomestic moms everywhere. Pizza remains our meal of choice. That is besides pancakes for dinner, which I tried to convince my kids was actually a dinner meal and not breakfast. But back to pizza for a minute. My kids actually gave me a cease and desist on ordering pizza. Mom, we have pizza every day at school. Do we have to have it at home too Yes. Yes you do I once strolled into the hallway and had to duck-and-cover because my sons were having a coin toss. No, not a coin toss like at a county fair where you merrily toss coins hoping to land on a plate in exchange for a stuffed animal or small trinket. No, Im talking about pennies flying through the air like Major League baseball pitches. Its times like these, when a mother picks up the phone and calls her best friend, or her sister, or a fellow mom, or someone who will understand and listen. Tattoo Moments: Okay, so I got a tattoo Im allowed, right Wrong! I thought Id surprise my family and hadnt told anyone, and so when a group of us were out to dinner, I wore a shirt that I knew would subtly yet somewhat conspicuously show the newly acquired...
