RATIONAL REPUBLICANISM In the preamble to the Constitution of the United States it says: We, The People of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquillity, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America. This is the grandest sentence ever yet inscribed in America, and perhaps the grandest of the past hundred years. It was the first full and explicit statement of the true object of government by the freely chosen delegates of a whole people; and it is as much in advance of the English Magna Charta as the nineteenth century is in advance of the thirteenth. Who was the author of it remains in doubt, but it is likely...
