Excerpt: .well at their annual concert (at which friends also assisted) on April 17, their tone and expression being good in Blow, soft winds and The Sweet of the Year. The 4th Plymouth Girl Guides creditably sang the cantata Spring triumphant on April 1. A determined effort is being made to raise the standard of troops concerts on the assumption that they will enjoy classical music well performed. The plan is too young yet to be criticised, the first chamber music programme having been given at Fort Stamford on April 28, and the second at Raglan on May 6. Pianoforte trios were played by the Misses E. Allen, W. Blight, and G. Trant. On May 15 Mr. R. G. Evans conducted the R.G.A. orchestra in a good performance of Wieniawski s Concerto No. 2 for violin and orchestra, with Mr. East as soloist. The band...
