LESSON TEN The Christian and His Denomination Devotional Reading. --Acts 1: 1-7 PRAYER. Almighty God, we thank thee that thou dost inspire men with vision and purpose. That thou dost give to the world great leaders who are fully consecrated to thee and their task. We are glad that thou didst speak to the founders of our own beloved denomination whose memory is sacred and whose work is abiding. We thank thee for our Church, its origin and history. We pray for wisdom, strength, and grace to do our share in pushing forward thy great work through its various organized agencies, less our Church and its leaders. Make them a mighty power in planning and promoting the work and in helping to win a lost world to Christ. Teach us to be loyal to our own Church and willing to cooperate with other Christian agencies. Bless abundantly the whole Church in her great program in this and in all lands, for Jesus sake. Amen. There are many Christian denominations, one of which is The United Brethren in Christ, which is your Church, in which you will worship, live and serve. Your attitude toward, and your love for your own denomination will largely determine your usefulness as a part of it. In order to have the right attitude and proper love for ones own denomination, it is necessary to learn a bit of its history; to know what it stands for, also its share along with...
