Sibbald: In Relation to His Claim for Indemnity on the Government of the United States To avail of the advantages of the 15th article of the Florida Treaty, a business was commenced with Cuba, by shipping flour under the Spanish flag, sent out from this city, in the lumber vessels. The celebrated patent planing machines of the invention of Mr. Woodworth, of which this Claimant is now the owner for East Florida, he arranged also to have attached to his Mills at that period. In these well-tested and extensive undertakings, this Claimant was hindered, resisted, and stopped, and whilst in the lawful exercise of his rights, was dispossessed of his property by the Officers of the Government of the United States, acting under the orders of the Executive, and Acts of Congress, under the pretence that the Lands in question were public property, thereby compelling him to abandon his undertakings, causing the destruction of his Saw Mills, - and with all this, prostrating his commercial credit, - subjecting him to all the attendant evils and sufferings produced by such a state of things, - and causing him such embarrassment as totally to prevent his engaging in business for several years thereafter. The suit of the Claimant for the recovery of his lands, which decided his right of property, will be found in the tenth volume of the Reports of Mr. Peters, at pages 321 and 322, where, on the Decree of the Supreme Court of the United States, it is recorded that the Lands in question, consisting of 16,000 acres, was the property of this Claimant, adjudged to be valid by...
