The Orion Publishing Group, Wellington House, 2002. leg.ed. sopracop.fig. Book Condition: NUOVO. Picture research and captions by Julie Summers, Design and Art direction by David Roweley. Julie Summers (the picture researcher) will be doing two events about Shackleton in the new year and was also a judge at the Kendel Mountain Film Festival. Julie is being interviewed on Cover Stories (BBC Radio Scotland) with Roland Huntford, to air on 10th December. Roland has also been interviewed on BBCRadio Solent, BBC Radio Guernsey, BBC Radio Shropshire, BBC Radio Bristol and BBC Hereford & Worcester as well as Teletext. The first review has been wonderful. 'Huntford's Shackleton Voyages condenses the author's wonderful definitive 1985 biography into a photographic anthology celebrating not just the most famous journey but the entire career. The photographs alone, informatively captioned by Julie Summers, summarise the tale from its beginnings with the boy who signed up for the navy at 16 to its end at a little stonecairn on a promontory of South Georgia, where he died of a heart attack at the age of 49. But the delight of this volume is that it invites its readers not only to gaze awestruck at the grandeur, but offers an insight into the life of an explorer.' Rachel Campbell-Johnston, The Times 'There's nothing quite as fascinating as a charismatic hero.' and Julie Summers' selection of pictures goes far in furthering the myth. Added to that, we have his diary extracts and letters allowing us to go beneath the surface to discover the man. And you can't help being impressed by what you find. Roland Huntford's text is informed and accessible. The book provides a fascinating insight into the explorer. It's beautifully produced and the numerous photographs provide us with a glimpse not only of the hardships and excitement of the voyages, but the personalities and lives of many...
