Printers Visit Paper Mills A part of sixty owners of printing establishments in Newark, N. J., the guests of the J. E. Linedale Company of that city, went to Holyoke last Thursday and visited the plants of the Crocker-McElwain and Chemical Paper Companies to broaden their know-ledge of papermaking. A visit was also made to the Strathmore Paper Company s plant at Mittineague. Luncheon was served on Mt. Tom, and dinner at the Kimball Hotel in Springfield in the evening. The National Administration sentimentally states that business is in the throes of a psychological panic. The opposition says this is all bosh and that a theoretical administration is the cause of business depression. We believe that the psychological moment has arisen for business to don its glad rags...
