But our faith stops not here: it includes the freedom of the entire man; ever subject, however, to the restraints of the higher law. We claim this freedom for ourselves, and we grant it to others. Aye, more, we demand it for others; and for all others. Especially do we plead for the enslaved of our race in this boasted land of the free and home of the brave. We do it, because they are not allowed to speak for themselves. We do it the more earnestly, because the rod of oppression is held by the American people. The same year that our Pilgrim fathers landed upon Plymouth Rock, and founded institutions that have blessed the world, the same year came a cargo of slaves to Virginia's shore; and then commenced an institution, that, like the serpent in the garden, has beguiled the people, and cursed the...
